AE Leagues reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to remove any player or team from registration or tournament play at any time. No refunds will be issued after final registration closes. Round-robin matches will be played on two tables, although additional tables may be used as needed based on time and tournament scheduling. Final bracket matches may be played on up to four tables. Teams are required to play on the number of tables assigned by tournament staff, up to four tables, and any team that refuses to do so will be disqualified from the tournament. The optional side pot is separate from tournament registration, and all side pot entries and payments must be completed on-site before the start of the tournament.
